WELCOME

HELLO

Hello and welcome to Maxine Howells Photography.

I am a welsh-speaking wedding and portrait photographer based in Cardiff, South Wales, specialising in documentary style photography.

One of the things I continuously hear from my lovely clients is that I was totally unobtrusive, and they barely noticed the camera snapping away. This is what I aim for, in this way I can really photograph genuine moments of you and your closest friends and family. The whole idea is that you don't notice me and are left to enjoy your day to the full.

I love capturing those natural and spontaneous moments, mixed in with a small selection of group shots, just enough to satisfy the parents and family! This makes my job the most rewarding on the planet.

I keep my prices fair and affordable while always aiming for consistency and quality in my work.

If you would like me to record the story of your big day, then do get in touch with any queries you have. I look forward to hearing from you and discuss your plans.

CLIENT SPOTLIGHT

KERRY & MIKE

Situated on the edge of the Brecon Beacons National Park, Craig-Y-Nos is an 1840's gothic castle, which provides a perfect backdrop for any wedding.

Kerry and Mike tied the knot on a glorious summer's day. There were blue skies, the sun was shining, and as soon as I arrived for the bride's prep, I could feel the excitement in the air. Kerry emerged looking stunning and her smile did not disappear from her face all day, brightening every space she entered.

The ceremony was held at the venue's old theatre room, followed by photography on the magnificent grounds surrounding the castle.

It was truly an idealic location to capture unforgettable wedding photographs.

The day was full of fun, laughter and merriment, and everyone made me feel so welcome.

It was definitely one of my favourite weddings so far...

" We had Maxine photograph our wedding day, she was professional, discreet and very hardworking.

Cannot recommend highly enough, you will not be disappointed and the pictures are stylish and creative. Thank you so much for everything!"

A full-page photograph of a man and a woman standing in a stone archway, facing each other and kissing. The man is wearing a light-colored shirt and dark trousers, and the woman is wearing a dark dress. The archway is made of rough-hewn stone, and the background shows a bright, open space with a tiled roof.

ABOUT ME

HELLO

Hi there, I'm a creative photographer intent on turning fleeting moments into lasting, tangible memories. My down-to-earth approach makes room for genuine emotions to shine through in every image, and I pride myself on my ability to connect with my clients, and my eye for detail.

It is my number one goal to unobtrusively capture the essence behind each shoot, letting the candid and natural beauty of my subjects shine through.

My Art degree from Cardiff University and background in Graphic Design helped me hone my skills and deepen my lifelong passion for photography. I am constantly inspired by the colours, emotions and people that make this world so unique, and I aspire to share this vision with as many people as possible!

My greatest reward is the look on a client's face when they get to glimpse that perfect shot, and re-live the emotion of their special day.

I offer a unique and affordable style, photographing throughout the UK or internationally. No destination is too far!
